Good Morning Bill:

I must have misunderstood where the orders were placed. On a separate topic, what paint color do you want the door trim, window trim and baseboard?

Thanks

They have not given us an order for the front window or the flooring

Thanks Bill. I know you told me that was the plan with the hot water heater. All else seems to be on schedule. They should be painting by Thursday.

I had the hot water tank replaced the very next morning,

I will check on what materials were ordered

Good Morning Bill:

How are you doing? I am back on-site. I wanted to see if you could give Frank and I a status on the delivery of materials that were ordered through GNBC. I know there was the main window. Anything else?

Also, were you able to fix the hot water heater? We wanted to know the answer for the plumbers.

Thanks
